Are you interested in fashion and retail?
Do you enjoy participating in community service projects with your peers?
{Become A Member Of Cherry Hill Mall's Style Squad Today!}

Cherry Hill Mall's 2009-2010 Style Squad Members: The Style Squad is a volunteer organization for teens in the local community. The program gives teens the opportunity to work with the community, participate in mall events and activities, and model in mall fashion shows. In addition, the organization generally meets once a month and the member serves one school year (September-May).

What are some of the things Style Squad members do?

- Learn to work with the public by helping with special events.
- Participate in holiday and community service events during the year.
 - Participate in Cherry Hill Mall fashion shows.
 - Learn basic modeling techniques.
 - Learn more about the retail industry.

Qualifications required to become a Style Squad member:

- A student between the ages of 14-18.
- Dependable, cooperative and willing to meet the commitments of the program.
 - Must have time to commit to mall-sponsored programs and events.
- Squad members must be fun loving, responsible students dedicated to their schools and communities.
